NATIONAL PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Howdy brothers and sisters. After reading the February magazine I realized that I was so caught up in what happened in January that I forgot to mention anything about our sweetheart. So I would like to thank Beta Eta for doing a great job for the National Sweetheart dance. And to our National Sweetheart Diane Dull who looked wonderful. I know Scott is proud of her. I am proud to say that Candie and I have never missed a National Sweetheart dance since I became a member of Phi Delta Kappa and we hope to keep the tradition going.

Candie and I also attended Danville's anniversary dinner this year. In my first year in office I went to Danville's anniversary party and had a great time. What I like is the fact that Danville does an anniversary party every year to celebrate and take pride in their chapter's achievements (Winchester does this also). They acknowledge their members with awards and praises. I think it would do all chapters good to do an anniversary for themselves it is a great form of fellowship. Candie was talking to Louise Rodman at Kokomo's breakfast in January and Louise told her that at one time all of the chapters had anniversary dinners and there was a lot of traveling every weekend.

For a while now I have been into looking for historical items for the fraternity. I've been keeping an eye on E-bay for what comes up and I have had the chance get some items. I have a bronze shield from the 1926 convention, a PDK cigarette lighter that Jim Cressman has already taken for the historical room, and I got a past chapter president pin that I'm keeping for myself and a ladies past chapter president's pin. I just won a sterling silver Phi Delta Kappa pin. There was a nice ring that got past me that I should have won but I didn't pay attention to the time on it. I am hoping that by the time this article goes out, I would have won a PDK pendant that was given out at the 1940 convention in Indianapolis.

I could not believe all this stuff is out there. I sometimes write the seller and introduce myself that I am the national president and ask would they mind letting me know where they got the items. Most of the sellers go to auctions to buy stuff to resell. The guy with lighter found it at a church garage sale. Nobody had a personable attachment to the item.

While I have been doing all this, I've been learning a lot about our national pins and in next month's article, I will share you some of the things I've learned. Till then hug a brother and kiss a sister.

Hello to all from sunny and warm South Florida. By the time this magazine is out, we would of had our chapter sweetheart balls and here in Florida the annual River Ranch get together. Hoping they all went well. Spring is upon us and before we know it, it will be convention time in Kokomo. I know we still have some important events ahead.

Both Northern and Southern Districts, as well as I'm hosting spring SEC this year on April 20th at FI Nu. It is amazing how chapters prepare for hosting events and all the hard work members do so that the event is successful. Hosting a National Convention is the ultimate reward for a chapter and the past conventions that I've been to have been well planned and organized. Kokomo will be ready to do the job I know.

A reminder to chapters that if you are nominating your chapter president for the award of Chapter President of the Year, that must be to me by March 1st if at all possible. To this date, only one brother has been nominated for the Circle of Excellence award. I'm wondering why more brothers are not being nominated. This award is the symbol of what being a true Phi Delt is all about.

Please let me hear from you. It was good to hear that our brothers in Winchester who had some health related issues are all doing well. Hope everyone has a great spring and keep up the good work. I'm proud to be a Phi Delt. Sam Agresti

A Better Year
Chris Parks
National Master of Ceremonies

Hello Brothers and Sweethearts! I was going to write about the chapter chase we just did, but I know our National Sweetheart Diane Dull is going to write about it, so I'll just say that those of you who didn't make it missed out on a great time!

Instead I think I'll just write about a little thing our National President said to me News Year's Eve. Now first off, he was only kidding, but now I think he may have been on to something. It all started when Brother PNP Craig Brutout came in on a cane and Brian looked at me and said something to the effect that maybe he should resign I said "Why would you do that?" and he pointed to Craig and said "look at Craig, he's only been out of office six months and it almost killed him"

We got quite the chuckle out of that, but now I think, look what's happened since then. PNP Craig has a quadruple bypass, National Auditor Jeff Wolfe has a minor heart attack (if there is such a thing as a minor heart attack its sounds pretty major to me), and I went in yesterday for a stent and got two and they invited me back for another one on Feb 21st. This one is going in the artery going into my right kidney instead of the arteries to my legs, joy, joy. There goes River Ranch. So this begs to question, is it the red coats? Or as our loving brothers at Beta Nu pointed out to me this week-end, that it might be our life style in Winchester, as all the above mentioned brothers are from Beta Eta?

The only common denominators are we are all from Beta Eta and in our mid fifties. I don't think it's the beer, since none of us have any issues with our livers. In mine and Jeff's case, it probably has a lot to do with the cigarettes! But in all three of our cases, I think cheese burgers and deep fried foods might just be killing us, not the red coats. Well it's time for us to come to the realization that we are no longer in our twenties and we have to make a few lifestyle changes, none of which are enjoyable, since beef is so tasty, and the only ones who truly loves fast food are the morticians and the doctors. As long as Ronald McDonald is about, they'll never run out of work.

So here are my lifestyle changes; stop smoking, avoid fast food, and now that I have a couple of new stents, to start exercising again. My goal is to lose twenty pounds by convention, so come to Kokomo this July and see how I've done!

"How will my actions today reflect on our fraternity tomorrow?"

March
Jeff Woolf
National Auditor

Greetings Brothers and Sweethearts,

I am very happy to be writing this article. As Brother Brian Nelson alluded to in his February article, I recently experienced a heart attack. I do not profess to be a prime specimen of health, with the fact that I smoke, drink, and do not exercise, eat right or sleep much, but I have to say I was caught off guard by this event.

If you had told me the day before that I was going to spend the next four days in the hospital, I would literally have laughed out loud. As Brian stated, heart health is very important. I can now attest to the fact that it can strike anyone at anytime. I personally felt fine less than one half hour before my attack, without any of the conventional warning signs.

PNP Craig Brutout was in a similar situation at the same time and the same hospital. He visited me the first night we were there. I was restricted to my bed, while he was able to wander the halls. Anyone looking in would have thought I was in the worse shape. As it turned out, that wasn't the case. Craig had a quadruple bypass and all I required was medication and a dietary change. I want to thank all for the prayers and well wishes.

Unfortunately, because of all this, I was not able to attend our first chapter chase. I was greatly anticipating a good time with all my brothers from our other chapters. From what I have been told, those who were able to attend enjoyed themselves and many are already talking of another one. Thank you to each person who got involved at the chapters that were visited. You made the idea a reality.

20/20 is underway. The early bird prizes have been awarded. Jim Myers and Greg Sumpter were the January winners and Florida Alpha Lambda and Winchester Ladies won in February. There is still time to get your tickets purchased before the weekly drawings begin. We are only four months away from this year's convention and the big drawings.

Fraternally, Jeff Woolf

Welcome from the Hospitality Chapter.

It's still the winter time blues at MS Alpha; spring is not coming fast enough!

Most chapters are waiting for a change in the weather to bring forth a rebirth of our new chapter house events and plans for the coming year. Mother Nature sure does play a major role in our functions. Planning out functions takes time and planning is crucial for a successful year! Every chapter needs to be careful of how they schedule events to be successful. Taking into consideration the weather, sometimes outdoor events can be done inside. Everyone chapter needs to be flexible! I hope everyone enjoys the coming spring and has a lot of success in the coming spring and summer.

I am glad that our brothers that have been ill are better. I hope they keep active and let us know if they need anything. They are in our prayers and hearts.

March brings daylight savings time and St. Paddy Day celebrations and Easter is early this year. Easter egg hunts and the laughter of children will be heard at many PDK'S. Getting children involved early in PDK fun will ensure a bright future for PDK. Here at MS Alpha we have 4 generations of the Bateman family. It's great to see tradition being passed down.

By now River Ranch will be over and I know all had a great time with lots of brotherhood and new ideas to take back to your Chapter House. Thanks again Alpha Lambda!

In April its FL Nu and Southern District and Spring SEC meeting where I know the sun will shine and the good times will be had. I am sure there will be some fish stories after everything is said and done. Remember, if it is to be it is up to me! Proud to be a Phi Delta! God Bless America!

Chris Linsinbigler
National Inner Guard

Hello from the flagship of the south, By the time you are reading this article, we will have returned home from River Ranch.

I know that Florida Alpha Lambda will have done a great job. They always do! I'm sorry I had to leave after the meeting on Saturday morning, but duty calls. Also we will be in the final planning stages for Southern District meetings and Spring S.E.C meetings. Remember to get in touch with Brother Ed Nault (561) 968-6672 or myself (561) 371-9791 for details on the fishing trip. Fish or golf, you have to know we at FL-NU will do our best to show a great time.

I hope that this article finds Brothers Chris Parks and Jeff Woolf are fully recovered from their procedures. And also that PNP Craig Brutout from his bypass surgery. I don't know what's in the beer they serve in Winchester, but I will bet it's not the water.

I know EVERYONE of us did something special for your own Sweetheart, your Chapter Sweetheart, as well as our own National Sweetheart Diana Dull. We get to do what we do all the time because we are lucky enough to have that special someone in our lives who support us. At least we can do right by them by honoring them for the month of February. Thank you Barbie for all you do. Not only for me, but the Chapter as well.

I'm looking forward to another trip to Florida Alpha Lambda on Wednesday March 6 to enjoy their business meeting with our National President Brian Nelson and our Vice President Sam Agresti. I trust that the knowledge and brotherhood that will be shared will not be forgotten.

So in closing I ask "ARE YOU A FAN OR AN EXTINGUISHER?"
 Till next time, Chris

Your Turn in the Box

Some articles are easy, but for most, I need to find inspiration e l s e - where. Check out this quote and see what you think.

"The day soldiers stop bringing you their problems is the day you have stopped leading them. They have either lost confidence that you can help them or concluded that you do not care. Either case is a failure of leadership." Colin Powell.

Let that sink in a bit...heck read it again. How true is that statement in everyday life? Replace the word soldiers with Phi Delt brothers, teammates, subordinates, family members, friends, etc. I believe that everybody can lead in some capacity or another. Some can lead a nation, some a charity bake sale or a Tee-Ball team. You probably ask yourself many times if you are capable of leading. Well, are you? Think about where you have the ability to lead. Do you want to accept the challenge to lead? All chapters have committees that need brothers to head them. Step up and see if you can do it. I bet you can lead a lot better than you think you can. Just like anything else in life, you really won't know until you try.

Another quote that I recently read that adds to the thought process "True leaders don't create followers...They create more leaders." The quote is attributed to J. Sakiya Sandifer. This sounds like a pretty good way to approach things. Pass it on!

I congratulate all newly elected chapter officers. "May the Force be with you"...LOL! Seriously, you have been chosen to be a leader and have an important part in the direction of YOUR chapter house. Don't take that burden without expecting to be involved in many discussions about anything and everything. Phi Delta Kappa is into its second century of existence because of our past leadership. The leaders of today understand the fact that there is a legacy that must be preserved. Many chapters that have failed over the years must have lost their leadership at some point. Once the leadership gives up, the rest of those involved will also give up, that type of leadership is still leadership, but of a poisonous nature. Follow the right leader and great things can happen.

Did I lose you yet? So by the time the magazine hits your mailbox and the internet, Valentine's Day will have come and gone, again. I sure hope I did not do anything to upset Sarah. I sure hope I did a fine job in picking out a gift. If I failed to meet her expectations, I know she will still love me anyway. I find comfort in that.

I know Spring is coming soon, but don't wish your life away. Enjoy every day you get to spend above ground on planet Earth. Hug a brother and tell your sweetheart that you love her every single day. I am very proud to be a Phi Delta Kappa.

Hello From The Sweetheart By Diana Dull

Hello from the National Sweetheart, better known as "the girlfriend". National Sweetheart Tour 2012(13) continues! And what a tour it has become!!

On January 12th, we headed out early for the "Chapter Chase" and we were missing one very important person and his wife, National Auditor Jeff Woolf, the creator of the trip!! It had been a trying week for some of the Beta Eta Brothers. Jeff Woolf had a trip to the hospital turn into a stay, PNP Craig Brutout had to have major heart surgery, and Todd Gullet got an overnight stay in the hospital because of an itty bitty nail (you'll have to ask Todd to elaborate on that)!!

But I am happy to report that all have survived and are doing well. Todd managed to join us on the trip as well as Christina and the Woolfs joined us on Sunday! National Master of Ceremonies Chris Parks and his wife joined us as we headed out from Beta Eta. First stop, Beta Nu, Kokomo for breakfast. National President Brian Nelson, PNP Greg Sumpter, National Outer Guard Bruce Smith, Brandon Sumpter and Jeremy Newton fixed a wonderful breakfast!! I believe that Bruce's wife Sarah and Brian's wife Candie might have also had a hand in fixing the meal. I also saw PNP Jim Myers and Buck and PNS Louise Rodman with a promise from them to feed us on Sunday at Beta Beta. With our bellies full, it was time to move on to the next chapter.

Next on the list was Lambda, Peru! Their place was a house and we were determined to get our picture at the front of the building, so we headed around the side and I managed to catch my heel and hit the ground (and no, I hadn't had more than 1 or 2!!) but was told I was very graceful and managed to keep my head upright the whole way down, as to not lose the crown!!! LOL!!

Talk about stressing out!! Not hurt though, and Todd picked me up and helped me the rest of the way so I wouldn't fall again, thanks Todd!! Inside, I was impressed by the small cozy bar and the historical pictures scattered along the walls of the big room. Mark Hall and Chip Buman were wonderful hosts and answered all of my questions! The Nelsons, Smiths, Sumpter and Newton joined us there and we sat and talked and drank in companionship with a few more of their members. They provided us with a wonderful lunch from a local pizza joint. I must say it was delicious! I thoroughly enjoyed my visit with Lambda but it was time to move on!

Next stop Delta Nu, Plymouth. The chapter house is off-the-beaten-path a little and a nice facility. The ground floor has a nice expansive bar and gaming tables. The upstairs is a nice ballroom where they have events, I'm told by Joe Clinton, who was the bartender while we were there. PNP Don Terruso and his wife PNS Susan were also there to greet us. They had food to help sustain us until our next meal! We were on the road and who knows where the next meal will come from, lol!! They have a neat chapter that has a lot of room outside that I was told holds many summer events. They suggested we come back in the summer when they have a band. I just may have to add that to my agenda one of these summers!! Time to say good-bye and move forward on our journey!!

I put Phi Delta Kappa, LaPorte into my navigator and it gave the address for Michigan City. Scott informed me that my navigator was jacked up, but Todd said his said the same thing!! We called Brian Nelson and got better directions, I think, and arrived on schedule at Zeta Eta, LaPorte. Well it was our schedule, so anytime was on schedule, lol!!

We were met at the door by Curt Walker who graciously opened the door for us. Behind the bar, Duane Fritzen welcomed us!! The have a nice chapter house with a barbecue outside. Duane gave Christina and me a tour after he gave us blackberry moonshine shots!! The moonshine was smooth and delicious but the berry made me wince!!! We gambled and ate sloppy joes!! We all donated to one of the members who won the board! PNP Bernie Geisler joined us in his Black Jacket!! He gave Scott heck for not wearing his!! We had a great time visiting with this Chapter and encouraged them to come to convention in Kokomo this summer. In fact we did that at every chapter, as well as a personal invitation to Beta Eta, Winchester. Duane Fritzen sent me a nice note and a dollar he forgot to give me from the tip board!! And yes Duane, we proudly displayed your sign, lol!!

Last stop for the evening, Gamma Lambda, Michigan City. Things were relatively quiet at the chapter house. Bill Hackett welcomed us and said that there had been more in the afternoon for basketball! We enjoyed his company as well as Mike Schwanke who manned the bar. There were more that came later in the evening for the football game along with pizza for supper. We appreciated their hospitality and called it an early evening, 10:30, and headed for the hotel for a good nights rest for the last leg of the journey on Sunday!

Sunday was a dark and rainy day. We loaded up and headed to Beta Beta, Wabash. Buck and Louise held true and provided us with pizza for lunch. John Lehner bartended and provided us with interesting stories. I had heard stories about Beta Beta's ballroom but you have to visit it in person to get the full picture!! Enough said and if you are wondering what I mean, take a trip to Wabash to see for yourself, lol!! Woolfs joined us there and finished the chase with us. While we were there, PNS Louise Rodman gave us permission to dance on the tables and whoop it up because we are the new generation of ladies! So look out in the future and don't blame me!!! LOL!!!

Our final stop before going home was Marion, the founding Chapter for Phi Delta Kappa. They have sold their building, but we did visit the location and get our picture taken. We also went to the courthouse where the commemorative stone with the names and the dates of the Founding Fathers sits. It was pouring rain and blowing but I grabbed my umbrella with both hands and stood over the stone so Scott could take my picture. Needless to stay, we were both sick the following week but it was worth it. We then headed home.

I realize this is very lengthy but I wanted to take the time to mention every chapter and as many people's names as I could remember who took the time to spend a part of those two days with us. I enjoyed seeing each and every chapter and meeting everyone!!! I hope that the future "Chapter Chase" will have greater participation!! And I hope those we met will take a trip to Winchester to visit Beta Eta!

By the time you read this we will have been at a few more chapters. I don't know that we will get to all of them but, I will do my best. I am so enjoying my reign as National Sweetheart and will be forever grateful for the opportunity that you have given me. Thanks to all who have traveled with me, but most of all thanks to my husband, Scott Dull for making all the travel possible! I love you!! Till next time, spend some time just visiting Brothers and Sweethearts, even if you don't leave your own chapter!

Convention 2013

By Jim Myers

July 17th to 21st 2013 Beta Nu will holding National Convention. I have heard someone saying that Courtyard by Marriott charges for their breakfast. I do not know what Courtyard does in other cities but in Kokomo breakfast is included in the special price of $79.00 plus taxes rather than $99.00 plus taxes for Double Double and King Rooms. They only have two King Suites available normal for $149.00 each, but we will get them for $99.00 plus taxes. The breakfast has biscuits and gravy, sausage, bacon, potatoes, waffles, fresh fruit, yogurt, cereals (hot or cold), eggs your way, juices and coffee.

Courtyard did state that only two breakfasts per room are included. Last summer Courtyard had a Soccer team rent two rooms and had 9 players in each. The next morning eighteen players wanted to eat a free breakfast. Therefore I was told that only two breakfasts per room.

The registration will be $120.00 per couple and $60.00 for single. More information about this year National Convention will be coming soon.

I hope to see you at convention this summer. I know we will have a great time. Please sign up early. The telephone number to the Courtyard is 765-453-0800 or may email: cortyardkokomo-sales@genhotels.com.

Cracker Country David Rieker

Hello again from cracker country. Our party for our new officers went very well, with many of our new members showing up. We were favored by a visit from Jim and Patty Cressman and National Inner Guard Chris Linsinbigler and his wife Barbara. Our new chapter president is Bruce Bessack. This guy the District Manager of a chain of "Office Depot" stores so it's not as though he needs something else to do. Reminds me of an old saying, "If you want to get something done, ask a busy person." We also have a new Sgt. At Arms, named Terry McKenna. He reminds me of a "Snow Plow Driver" I once knew. I don't dare approach him because he continues to carry his gavel with him, even after the meetings are over.

Phi Delta Kappa lost a good man and friend the other day. Tom Emberton passed away from old age. He was up in his 90's. Until a few years ago, Tom was a very active member. When the club house yard needed mowing, there was Tom. If the floors needed mopping or a club meal needed to be prepared or a screw needed tightened, there was Tom. Added to this, Tom was a dedicated Secretary to the club for many years. A good family man and as likable a guy and friend as you will ever meet. He is sorely missed.

And now for fiction and fact from the Phi Delt almanac. A panel of deep thinkers were needed to explain the need for critiquing the use of the English language. Phi Delts were sought out to do the in depth study. After many weeks of deep thinking we determined that the word "BUT" nearly always follows the phrase. "It's none of my business..." So, be well and full of he$#@. Cracker boy signing off. Dave Rieker.

Imagine

PNP Jon Handy – Beta Nu

John Lennon wrote the iconic lyrics to his song “Imagine” in 1971. It became an overnight success in the war-weary world of the anti-Vietnam era. Although I did not agree in principle with the context of the message of the lyrics, I did find them appealing and compelling in a time of uncertainty and hostility. I too was anxious to see an end to this youth-killing, hero-making war. It was with this in mind that I decided to take a serious look at this imagined world that John Lennon had advocated.

The first concept that Lennon would have me imagine is that there is no heaven. This of course implies that there is no reward for a life well lived – whatever “a life well lived” means. Every life gets the same reward – death. A child rapist earns the same fate as Mother Theresa. In eternity, a million years gets swallowed up in a vacuum. You may as well have not existed at all. The events of every life are irrelevant. You choose - do you want to be a do-gooder or a murderer?

But then I have always had questions about the Bible’s description of Heaven. There is only peace and understanding there. Saints and Angels stand around the throne of God singing his praises into eternity. Doesn’t that sound a little boring? Maybe the Bible does not describe everything that goes on in heaven. After all we are talking about eternity. Where are the adventurers, the sky-divers, the mountain climbers, the thrill seekers, and the challenges?

Lennon’s “Today” presents no mountains to climb either. Everyone thinks the same way. They are all war haters – no debate there. There is no room for someone to disagree. That would be too war-like, and they cannot tolerate anyone who does disagree. I think that is what we call an oxymoron. Challenging the leaders of their unwritten laws would cause a disturbance in the force. Maybe they all run around naked. That might create a little excitement for the first ten minutes of this imaginary day, but it will shortly grow a little tedious and lose its appeal – much like a Nudist Camp where nudity becomes the norm. And nudity is definitely not an asset for all people. Yes, even people who live in communes are excommunicated when they try to operate too far outside the box.

Next Lennon would have me imagine there are no countries – nothing to kill or die for. He would have me sit around singing and living a life of peace and agreement. John forgets that there are a lot of religions that want the same things. They just want to live lives separate from society, not participate in elections, wars or civil service. They are peaceful communities that just want to live alone and define their own ideas of community, love and understanding. Even in America, with all its freedoms, they are not allowed to do this. They are ridiculed, laughed at, drug off to war, or put in jail. Why does John think it would be any different in his “Today” world? He could not force everyone to think like him unless we made him king. There would be no need to record history because every day is the same. This is beginning to sound a little boring isn’t it?

Life without war sounds idyllic until you consider the consequences of such an existence. There would be no reprisal from those who would enslave you or dictate the laws to you by force. How would we have ever have won our freedom from England except by war? How would the African slaves in America ever have won their freedom except by way of the Civil War?

I will continue living in this adventurous world until I die, but when I do die, I have the hope of an eternal life in heaven. So far I have never found a description more idyllic than the Biblical version of Heaven. I doubt that even John Lennon can convince me of a better plan. I even expect to find more when I get there!
