NATIONAL PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Howdy brothers and sisters.

It is November and that means leaves are falling, Veterans Day and Thanksgiving. I love the turning of the colors of the leaves, the red, yellow, and brown. It's like eye candy for the soul. But they are only beautiful when they are on the trees. When they fall onto the ground and get wet they are not as pretty. I like to wait for all of the leaves to fall before I start to rake them, that way I only have to do it once, but my granddaughters love to jump in the leaf piles and play around which makes me rake them all up again. I hope that a big wind storm comes and blows them all way, but that never happens. When the wind blows, it just adds more to my yard. I normally have the leaf problems taken care of by the 3rd week or so of November, which gives me plenty of time to get ready for the Thanksgiving feast. I am not going to bore you with how much I love Thanksgiving and how it's the best holiday there is.

By the time you read this, the Presidential election will be over, which I am glad it is. This has seemed to have been one of the longest-run contests I can remember. Some of the republican candidates started the campaign over a year and half ago. With the rhetoric from the last six months on both side I got tired of hearing it a month ago. I didn't know who won by the time I wrote this article but I hope that they will move our nation forward and that all of our elected officials from the Local Committeeman to the Senate will uphold oath the serve the American people.

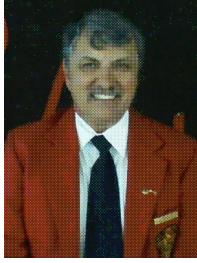

Although I thought this was a long election I am thankful that we as a nation that have the right to vote. It does not matter if you're low, middle, or upper class we all get one vote. It does not matter who won, there are going to people happy and some upset, but I am thankful that we have a system that lets us have a choice.

I am thankful that our nation's forefathers put it into the constitution the right for its people to meet in secret. Without this right, our fraternity and others like us could be censured by the government. Nothing would sacred to us because there would be no secrets. I am thankful for the privilege to be a part of Phi Delta Kappa

Hello brothers from South Florida. This article is being written in September for our November magazine so it will be about the Circle of Excellence that our fraternity has and very few know about. The reason I'm writing this article is that we have many outstanding brothers who I know qualify but have not been nominated so I'm hoping this award starts to be recognized as one of the most sought award we can give to our members. Also Fall SEC, the Swampfest at FI Nu and the Hog Roast at Danville will be over so we can talk about this stuff in December.

I did some research about this award and found out that it started out many years ago but did not stay active so it was dormant until recent years with PNP Scott Dull revitalizing it. I found out about it in the magazine and talked to Scott about the award and what he knew about it. Well as I said researching it here in South Florida not many knew about it and can't recall someone who has received this award. My goal in the coming months is to be able to award this honor to well deserving brothers of PDK.

This program is sponsored by the officers of the Supreme Executive Committee and is designed to provide the recognition for those Phi Deltas who LIVE the Phi Delta Kappa philosophy. It is open to all members in good standing and can be awarded only once to that person. The purpose is to reward those members who keep each individual chapter alive and functioning and who contribute to the philosophy of National Unity among Phi Delta Kappa brothers. The requirements are: 1. Sponsor a new member in the last year through installation as a member. 2. Average a minimum attendance of at least one meeting per month for the last year. 3. Perform some service to his chapter in the last year. 4. Visited one other chapter in the last year. 5. Participated in one national event in the last year.

Applications are coming out in the magazine. But in the meantime contact Sam Agresti at nationalvicepresident@phideltakap.pa.org or sdagresti@comcast.net if your chapter has a worthy candidate.

The award is a PDK Medallion with a red/black ribbon. This award also can be mounted in a picture frame. Again I hope to recognize a lot of worthy PDK members in the future.

Hello Brothers and Sweethearts!

The holiday season is upon us, the ghost and goblins have come and gone; and we are left with a strange craving that only football and turkey will satisfy! As Thanksgiving is quickly approaching let us not forget those less fortunate as us, so that when we sit down for our Thanksgiving dinner, as we are giving thanks, we will know there are other families who are less fortunate who will be sitting down and giving thanks due to the efforts of you. For there is truly no greater satisfaction than the gift of giving to those less fortunate.

With 23 million unemployed or under employed we all know someone in dire straits making the tough decisions on what to spend their precious few dollars on. As Phi Deltas that's what we do, give a helping hand to our communities, to be a pillar in our communities! A driving force that everyone knows our name; not just as another social club, but that of a major supporter of our local food banks, schools, and youth activities! Build your image and you will build your chapter.

There are thousands of men in our communities who are not members for the simple fact that they don't know what it is that we do, we have not done our job. We have failed to promote our chapters; we don't toot our own horn! We donate by simply just sending in checks and maybe we might get mentioned at the bottom of some article listed in with all the other donations.

At Beta Eta they have come up with a way to ensure everyone sees what they do; they have a large check made, then when they make a donation they call the local paper and make a photo op out of it.

Works rather well, not only do they get a picture in the paper, the paper will have a reporter write an article on PDK. News is news and your local paper is always looking for filler articles on their local communities, so let's give it to them!

“How will my actions today reflect on our fraternity tomorrow?”

Greetings Brothers and Sweethearts,

With the holidays just around the corner, I hope all of you have your plans in place for the seasonal festivities. At my home chapter, we now do a Holiday meal between Thanksgiving and Christmas and it is always a day of brotherhood, good food and of course Santa comes by for the kids.

As a child, the Christmas meal at Phi Delt was something I always looked forward to. I got to see friends who I didn't see at school and eat to my hearts content. Children have always been welcome at Beta Eta, and many events have been built around them being there. We have always considered ourselves a philanthropic organization and kids are one of our main benefactors. At Beta Eta, we donate thousands of dollars to children's groups and provide local scholarships to PDK connected students.

I know that other chapters do the same and nationally, the Foundation, offers scholarships as well. The one regret I have with this is the lack of recognition our organization receives for all we do. A very large percentage of people do not even know we exist, let alone what we do. Publicity is important if we wish to continue to grow. We cannot attract new membership if people don't know who we are. Each chapter needs to find a way to get their name in the local papers. If a donation is given to an organization, notify your local newspaper. If you are scheduling a benefit drive, get it in the paper. Make the name Phi Delta Kappa prominent in your area and it will spread to surrounding areas.

I cannot guarantee this will cause a growth in your local membership, but I can guarantee that it will not cause a reduction in your membership. Let's give it a try and see what comes from it.

Have a happy Thanksgiving, Brothers.

Fall is awaiting us, you can feel the cool air in your bones, or at least I can! Well I finally made it to the Hog Roast at Gamma Theta in Danville IN., It was a great time! I got there on Friday 21 Sept and was greeted by the smiles of many brothers busy with getting ready for the weekend events. The aroma of smoke was in the air the first chill of fall was upon us, brothers and sister kept coming until dinner time where we had fish sandwich and other fixins, then still more brothers and sisters continued coming on in. Karaoke started and soon it was pig on a stick, the best I have ever had.

The next day, President Brian Nelson and I ventured to Beta Nu in Kokomo where we attended breakfast and had fellowship with their membership. They are having breakfast, it has some of the best sausage gravy, the price is just $5.00. The fellowship and brothers I met were priceless!

Later that day, back at Gamma Theta they had corn hole, horse-shoes and good times outside. At 7:00 a hog heaven dinner with all the fixins, the band started at 9:00 It was outside the chapter-house decorated with hay bales and Chinese lanterns and strings of lights to give a lively glow. Fun was had until the wee hours of morning! Again, I want to thank everyone at Gamma Theta for all their hard work and for the true hospitality they showed me.

The next day I went to Beta Eta in Winchester the chapter house opened at 12:00 for the ballgame. I met many new members and greeted old friends and watched the Colts game with them. They have a great way to make your Sunday exciting, If the home team scores a touchdown you receive a ticket for a free drink. What a great way to encourage members to stop by and watch the game. Saying my good-byes I headed back to MS Alpha.

Remember if it is to be it is up to me! Proud to be a Phi Delta! Greg

I never knew how difficult writing an article every month was going to be. The writing isn't the bad part - getting started is. Remember that we have to write about events in the future, because we need to send them to the editor a month in advance, so he has the time to build the magazine. By the way, great job as always, Greg. I wouldn't want your job for all the tea in China. But anyway, Greg needs the time to build the magazine and get it to the printer the month prior so you can read it and please say that you do indeed read it.

We took an informal poll at our business meeting last Wednesday night, which we had 21 brothers in attendance, more than 50 % of our membership and everyone said that they do read the magazine. I know that the topic of our national magazine will be discussed at the Fall SEC meeting in Meridian in October. I hope all that who can attend will be there. You know Mississippi Alpha will treat us great, but we must take care of the business at hand first, then THE Hospitality Chapter will do what they do best, Thank- You in advance!

Like I was saying by the time you're reading this football will be in full swing, we will be with our families for the Thanksgiving holiday. Let's not forget our servicemen and women who are not with their families. Hopefully they will all be home - in good health and spirits - to enjoy their families.

This November is also the time we have the right and privilege, but also the duty to vote. And whether your choice wins or loses, let's work together to turn this great country of ours around. ASAP please. Our civic duties are a lot like our fraternal ones. You have to exercise them for them to work! Just having them at your disposal is not enough. Get involved, both Locally and Nationally. Remember what you put into our fraternity is what you get out of it. Are you a fan or an extinguisher?

I will pass along a quote that I found that hit me right in the heart. "Those who are happiest are those who do the most for others."

Booker T.

Washington (April 5, 1856 – November 14, 1915) who was an African-American educator, author, orator, and advisor to Republican presidents is the author credited with this quote. "Charity starts at home" is another well used phrase. My Beta Nu brothers tend to do our fair share of charitable activities. I am sure all Phi Delta Kappa chapters do the same.

This time of year is when we do our most charitable events. We raise money for Equiventure Therapeutic Riding by having a band or two host an event in the chapter house. We hit the crowd up for donations then match the money collected dollar for dollar up to $500. The bands donate their musical talents and play for free through our "house" PA (thank you Brother Mike Leazenby). Last year was the first year that the crowd exceeded the $500 goal. We put in our part and the Equiventure people were very thankful. <http://> www.equiventure.org is their website.

The first weekend in December also takes our brothers to two intersections in the city of Kokomo. We stand out in the intersections with our We Care buckets in hand. We do this in whatever weather the good Lord brings us that weekend. The goal is to collect loose change, bills and checks for We Care. The amount of money we collect for We Care is typically over $10,000. This is accomplished over a few hours on Friday night, most of the daylight hours on Saturday and a few more hours on Sunday. The chapter house is typically filled with plenty of food, brothers and their sweethearts along with other family members. Our sweethearts are in charge of counting all the bills and cleaning the change.

This to me is one of my favorite weekends of the year. The money collected is to help insure that the less fortunate children of Kokomo and Howard County can have a few Christmas presents to open. The local cable company has a dedicated channel for the auction that starts on Friday night and runs continuously through Sunday. This channel is running the whole time someone is in the chapter house. People from the area donate items to We Care for the auction. On Sunday evening the totals are presented by many local entities. The Beta Nu Phi Delt is one of the last groups to present our collection total. Remember we almost always collect over $10,000 for We Care. The loud cheers from the studio audience can be totally overwhelming. Knowing that I could help some child I don't even know, to have a blessed Christmas makes me swell up with joy and pride.

PNP, Emir and as true of a Phi Delt that you will ever meet Brother Jim Myers spearheads our chapter's involvement in We Care. He calls brothers and gets them to commit to a time slot to work the intersections. He makes several pots of some of the best chili that you will ever put in your mouth for us "workers". Jim donates a huge amount of hours to We Care. He does this on his own volition and expects nothing in return for his efforts. I am sure he does it because it makes him happy. Beta Nu benefits in the eyes of the community because of Jim's tireless efforts. Thank you brother! (I am wiping a tear from my eye, sorry for the delay.)

The other main charity we do is for the Moose Carden Kids Fishing Clinic. Our part in this wonderful charity is to raise money for equipment so the kids can fish. We use the chapter house to host a party with bands, comedians, magicians, whatever we can dig up to entertain the crowd to help the kids out. Brother Craig Carter is the main Phi Delt to get this event up and running. Craig gets door prizes from all over the central Indiana area. There is a cost to attend the fundraiser but that ticket gets you a chance at the door prizes. The sales receipt that Craig shows off after he and the other boat captains do their shopping is HUGE. I bet one year is was over 10 feet in length. The Kid's Fishing Clinic has received a National Award for their efforts. Pretty darn impressive wouldn't you say?

Charity is sometimes thought of in a bad context. There are situations where that is very true. In those cases, I like another quote I have heard before. "I don't mind, and even enjoy, giving a helping hand from time to time. But if I have to give two hands over and over I would rather use my boot." Yikes, but sometimes that is necessary.

Almost all of Beta Nu's charitable activities help the young people in our community. Hopefully as these children reach adulthood they will look back and realize how important it was to them to receive a little help along the way. Then to have them to keep the charity ball rolling would be an amazing feat. Enjoy the Christmas season and I hope and wish for you and yours to have a great coming year. Hug a brother and tell your sweetheart that you love her every single day.
